

BRITISH TRANSPORT REVIEW

This contained articles aimed at professional railway management people. It kept them informed of what others outside their immediate sphere were doing, thinking or researching.

Listed below are the main contents of each four-monthly issue. They are word-searchable.

Rather like learned papers presented at a conference, most articles consist solely of text. Some have line drawings, maps, tables or graphs. Just a few are accompanied by photographs, and those ones are indicated in the lists below.

From the page number of an article and the page number of the succeeding one, you can judge how many pages it comprised.

Volume 1 No. 1: April 1950

Page	Article
3	Introduction
9	Consultation between Railway management and Staff
12	The I's have it (Investigation, Imagination, Invention, Initiative)
24	Maintenance and the 'Inflationary Gap'
27	The accounting and Financial Structure of British Transport (1)
40	Passenger Road Transport: The First Area Scheme
49	'From Five to Fifty Thousand' (British Road Services)
56	A City Hotel from the Inside
60	Recent Publications

Volume 1 No. 2: August 1950

Page	Article
71	British Transport Docks and Waterways
79	Staff Discussions on Day-to-Day Problems
85	The London Travel Survey, 1949
93	Negotiation and Consultation in the Road Haulage Executive
101	The Significance of Population (1)
112	The accounting and Financial Structure of British Transport (2)
121	Provincial Bus Operation
127	Recent Publications

Volume 1 No. 3: December 1950

Page	Article
139	The Tale of Tourism
146	The Public Accountability of the Commission
156	Measurements of Efficiency
168	The Mechanisation of Freight Handling (with photos)
178	Historic Transport Buildings (with photos)
193	The Significance of Population (2)
202	The Development of the British Transport Shipping Services
209	Recent Publications

Volume 1 No. 4: April 1951

Page	Article
219	Keeping London Moving (1)
231	The Closing of Branch Lines and Intermediate Stations
243	Integration of Transport: Some International Views
254	Lay Thoughts on Joint Consultation
261	The Welfare of Hotel Staff
267	A Station Master's Day
277	Labour Relationships on the American Railways
283	Recent Publications

Volume 1 No. 5: August 1951

Page	Article
291	Holidays and Holiday Expenditure
299	A Visit to America
305	The Art of Improvement
315	Problems & Difficulties in the Design of Railway Coach Interiors (with photos)
323	Tradition in the Public Service
330	Keeping London Moving (2)
338	Mechanization in Locomotive Works (with photos)
347	Recent Publications

Volume 1 No. 6: December 1951

Page	Article
355	'Consumer Councils' in Transport
361	A Logical Basis for Co-ordination?
372	Traffic Costing
383	Review of Trade Harbours
389	Glasgow's Transport Problem
400	Productivity on the Permanent Way (with photos)
416	Measuring Operational Efficiency
428	Manpower
440	Recent Publications
449	Index to Volume 1

Volume 2 No. 1: April 1952

Page	Article
3	Progress in the Integration of Transport
16	Popular Misconceptions about Nationalized Transport
23	Training for Transport (1)
34	Statistics in Administration
54	Consultation in Practice
62	Time
66	Control of Costs by means of Standards
79	Recent Publications

Volume 2 No. 2: August 1952

Page	Article
91	Training for Transport (2)
97	Inspection
102	Gas-Turbine Locomotives in Britain (with photos)
109	The U.S. Interstate Commerce Commission
116	Changes in Railway Station Catering (with photos)
129	World Trends in Rail Fare Levels
139	The Industrial Film in Transport (with photos)
149	More about Statistical Sampling
163	Recent Publications

Volume 2 No. 3: December 1952

Page	Article
171	Monopoly and Competition in Rail and Road Transport
187	Standards of Service in Freight Transport by Rail
199	Road Haulage as a National Service
211	Coach Touring in Scotland (with photos)
223	The Future for Holiday Travel by Rail
231	Bus Design and Construction in Bristol (with photos)
240	Aims of an Industrial Health Service
251	Sample of Goods Vehicle Fleets
258	Recent Publications

Volume 2 No. 4: April 1953

Page	Article
263	Operational Research: An Aid to Efficiency
279	The Inland Waterways Industry
284	Traffic Costs in Transport Management
295	Transport for the Coronation Spectator
307	'Bristol on the Move': An Interpretation of a Survey
320	Development of a Private Teleprinter Network (with photos)
338	Transport and the February Floods (with photos)
351	Recent Publications

Volume 2 No. 5: August 1953

Page	Article
363	Competition in Public Passenger Transport
387	Efficiency in London Transport
405	Trends of Public Service Vehicle Design
418	Freight Rates on the French Railways
431	Town Planning and Passenger Transport in London
445	Recent Publications

Volume 2 No. 6: December 1953

Page	Article
459	The Relationship of Rail and Air Transport in Britain
472	Nationalized Industries and the Legislature
481	The Organisation of the London and North Eastern Railway
490	Policemen in Transport
498	A Talk with Sir Ernest Clark
501	Railway Shop Windows (with photos)
510	Passenger Services on the Netherlands Railways
520	With London Buses on the Continent (to Zurich – with photos)
530	Recent Publications
534	Index to Volume 2

Volume 3 No. 1: April 1954

Page	Article
3	Towards Fuller Employment: Introduction
5	Towards Fuller Employment (1): Passenger Rolling Stock
15	Changes in the Theory and Practice of Railway Rate-Making after 1953
26	Lightweight Diesel Trains (with photos)
36	The Employment of Older Men and Women
44	Thinking about Leadership
49	The Statistical Design of Experiments
64	Recent Publications

Volume 3 No. 2: August 1954

Page	Article
75	Equity Capital and the Public Corporation
85	Towards Fuller Employment (1): Passenger Rolling Stock (continued) – letters from readers
106	The Extension of General Management
116	Mass-Production Overhauls (with photos)
128	Inland Transport in Europe: as Users see it
136	The New Woodhead Tunnel (with photos)
148	Change
156	The Control of Provincial Bus Fares
163	Recent Publications

Volume 3 No. 3: December 1954

Page	Article
179	Towards Fuller Employment (2): Freight Rolling Stock
202	Capital Development in U.S. Transportation
213	Freight Charges on British Railways
224	A Road Haulier's Daily Round
234	The Railways and the National Accounts
244	Profile: George Morse
252	High-Speed Refuelling (of lorries)
259	Recent Publications

Volume 3 No. 4: April 1955

Page	Article
263	Organizing for the Future
272	The Railway Plan: A Perspective
286	Towards Fuller Employment (3): Railheads for Wagon-Loads
296	Urban Passenger Transport and the Private Car (with photos)
318	Superior Rail Travel
335	Costs and Charges
350	Energy Conservation on the Railways
359	Towards Fuller Employment – Letters from Readers
383	Recent Publications

Volume 3 No. 5: August 1955

Page	Article
391	Towards Fuller Employment (4): Steam Locomotives
402	Some Notes on Railway Organization in the USA
408	The Transport Situation in Western Germany (with photos)
426	Towards Fuller Employment – Letters from Readers
451	Regulation of Transport:: An American View
460	ETR 300 (Italian Railways New Electric Trains) (with photos)
470	'Electronic Brains'
480	Recent Publications

Volume 3 No. 6: December 1955

Page	Article
495	Towards Fuller Employment (5): Time and Space
509	Some Modern Trends in Railway Management (1): Organization Structure
525	Transport in the Soviet Union (with photos)
549	The Administration of Road Haulage Disposals
569	A British Railwayman in France
575	Private Motoring and passenger Traffics in London
588	Letters from Readers
608	Recent Publications
614	Index to Volume 3

Volume 4 No. 1: April 1956

Page	Article
3	Towards Fuller Employment (6): Track and Signalling
18	Road Investment: A Reconsideration
32	Freight Transits and Wagon Control in West Germany
49	The Up-to-Date Look (Modernisation in Photos)
57	The Problem of Unremunerative Passenger Train Services
68	Television and Passenger Traffics in London
80	Some Modern Trends in Railway Management (2): Personality & Leadership
90	Letters from Readers
104	Recent Publications

Volume 4 No. 2: August 1956

Page	Article
111	British Road Services in the Competitive Era (with photos)
125	Towards Fuller Employment (7): Freight Terminals and Cartage
135	Atomic Energy and the Future of Coal
149	Training Railmen of the Future (with photos)
159	Railway Organization in France and West Germany
165	'Customer Service' on an American Railroad
171	Letters from Readers
191	Recent Publications

Volume 4 No. 3: December 1956

Page	Article
199	The National Cost of Transport
207	The Future for Railways in Canada
217	Competition in Transport as an Instrument of Policy
224	Keeping Trains to Time (1): Freight Services
235	Fencing the Railway: Then and Now
243	Transport for Iron and Steel
250	Freight Services on the Netherlands Railways
261	Hydraulic Buffers and the Modern Wagon
268	Letters from Readers
281	Recent Publications

Volume 4 No. 4: April 1957

Page	Article
291	Towards Fuller Employment (8): The Scope for Work Study
304	National Transport Policies
311	Keeping Trains to Time (2): Passenger Services
323	Non-Paying Services: The Public's View
334	Scrap this Antiquated Price Structure!
344	How Greater London Travels
360	Obligations of Freedom
370	Letters from Readers
390	Recent Publications

Volume 4 No. 5: August 1957

Page	Article
399	Reflections on the Railway Charge Scheme: 1 'Set Fair'
405	Reflections on the Railway Charge Scheme: 2 Maximum Rates in an Inflationary Economy
415	Towards Fuller Employment (9): Motive Power
428	Top Management Planning and Control
438	Steel Traffic and Fitted Wagons
447	Keeping Trains to Time (3): Readers' Views
465	Cost Variations in Transport: A Comparison of Road and Rail (Part 1)
477	Federal Regulation of Road Haulage in the USA
483	Letters from Readers
485	Recent Publications

Volume 4 No. 6: December 1957

Page	Article
495	The Way Ahead
503	The Current American Railroad Scene (with photos)
521	Keeping Trains to Time (4): Speed Restrictions
529	The Future Pattern of Surface Transport
544	New Railway Stations in Holland (with photos)
559	Cost Variations in Transport: A Comparison of Road and Rail (Part 2)
569	Towards Fuller Employment: Letters from Readers
576	Thoughts on Management Accounting in Transport
586	Recent Publications
594	Index to Volume 4

Volume 5 No. 1: April 1958

Page	Article
3	Towards Fuller Employment (10): A Summing Up
11	Transport Charging Policies
21	Computers in Transport
30	London Revisited
33	Money for New Stations: Some Continental Ideas
43	Co-ordinated Coach Services
52	Human Failure and Accidents: A Medical View
61	Keeping Trains to Time (5): Letters from Readers
67	Recent Publications

Volume 5 No. 2: December 1958

Page	Article
75	The Organization of Transport
85	Industry and the Individual
91	Money for New Stations: A Reader Writes
92	Rail v Road in West Germany
102	Traffic Costing and the Economist
109	Electronic Data Processing
118	Door to Door Service (1): Fish
126	Selling Rail Transport
141	Recent Publications

Volume 5 No. 3: April 1959

Page	Article
155	Travel on Business
164	Wagons at Work
179	Peak Passenger travel – the French Approach
193	The Best that is in Them...
198	The Future of the Waterways
211	How Much Control? A Business Example
219	Traffic Costing and the Economist: A Rejoinder
228	Letters from Readers
260	Recent Publications

Volume 5 No. 4: August 1959

Page	Article
267	How Air Competes with Rail in Britain
285	Joint Bus Services: The First Ten Years at Luton
291	Making the Most of the Track
313	Charging on Small Consignments
317	Seating the Office Worker (with photos)
324	Design for Transport: The SS Maid of Kent (in photos)
330	What Travellers Mean by Comfort
334	Madrid Congress: Passenger Prospects
342	Letters from Readers
362	Recent Publications

Volume 5 No. 5: December 1959

Page	Article
375	The Obligation to Carry
386	Japan Invests in a New Railway
393	Urban Congestion and the Parking Problem
413	Design for Transport: New Railway Architecture (in photos)
421	Excursion Trains: Some Economic Problems
431	Modernization: What Salesmen Want
448	The Role of Electronics in Railway Operation (1)
455	Development of Overseas Freight Services
460	Letters from Readers
469	Recent Publications

Volume 5 No. 6: April 1960

Page	Article
475	Operational Research and Management
493	The Obligation to Carry (Part 2)
504	Heavy Freight on Motorways
512	Keeping the Staff Informed
521	Design for Transport: Glasgow Suburban Trains (in photos)
525	Letters from Readers
535	The Role of Electronics in Railway Operation (2)
544	Recent Publications
547	Index to Volume 5

Volume 6 No. 1: August 1960

Page	Article
3	Operational Research in British Transport
16	Selling British Rail Travel in North America
24	The Role of Electronics in Railway Operation (3)
31	Can Rail Economy go too far?
39	Assessing the Value of Internal Communications
49	Design for Transport: New Buildings for London Transport (in photos)
57	The Obligation to Carry (Part 3)
65	The 'Pink Zone' Experiment (London Transport)
77	Letters from Readers
80	Recent Publications

Volume 6 No. 2: December 1960

Page	Article
87	Urban Transport Developments in the USA
103	The Wagon of the Future
109	Design for Transport: Catering Vehicles (in photos)
113	Peak Traffic: The West German Approach
124	Operational Research in London Transport
135	Lessons of the Trans-Europ Express System
147	Can Rail Economy go too far? A Reader Writes
149	Recent Publications

Volume 6 No. 3: April 1961

Page	Article
159	Automation and Transport
172	Accidents Among Older London Transport Drivers
185	The Role of Design in Public Transport
189	Design for Transport: Modern Design in Rail Vehicles (in photos)
196	Rural Bus Services: Some Economic Problems
205	Letters from Readers
207	Assessing Passenger Loads: The Loadmeter and its Uses
214	Future Railway Research: Some Objectives
224	Recent Publications

Volume 6 No. 4: August/December 1961

Page	Article
231	Management Skills and the Transport Industry
240	Transport for Steel
257	Marketing Rail Freight Services
264	Railways: The Technical Prospects
287	Urban Motorways and Urban Congestion
302	Letters from Readers
307	Recent Publications

Volume 6 No. 5: April 1962

Page	Article
315	Choosing the Right Managers
329	Railways and the Common Market
341	Progress in Carriage Riding
355	Glasgow's Blue Trains: Some Implications
364	Recent Publications
366	Letters from Readers

Volume 6 No. 6: August 1962

Page	Article
379	Market Research as a Management Tool
392	Timetables and the Public Image of the Railways
399	Some Implications of the Fawley Wage Agreement (Esso & the Unions)
407	Reducing Station Costs
415	Urban Traffic Problems and their Effect on Public Transport
426	Management, Initiative and Innovation
430	Choosing the Right Managers: A Reader Writes
433	Index to Volume 6

Volume 7 No. 1: December 1962

Page	Article
3	The Study of Work
22	Railways: What the Businessman Wants
28	Trains in Circuit
35	Pipelines: Present and Future
45	Some Thoughts on Marketing Railway Services
51	Prospects for the Transport Helicopter in Britain
61	Letters from Readers

Volume 7 No. 2: April 1963

Page	Article
69	Electricity Coal and the Railways
76	Lessons of the Station Housekeeping Account
91	The Changing Shape of Railway Employment
98	Railways: What the Public Wants
105	Nationalized Transport under the Transport Act 1962
121	British Railways and the Steel Industry
128	Recent Publications

Volume 7 No. 3: August 1963

Page	Article
131	Improving the Use of Wagons
153	The Punctuality Problem
161	Bulk Handling of Coal
173	The User's Choice
187	Traffic Costing and Management
196	'The Railwaymen'
205	Recent Publications
207	Letters from Readers

Volume 7 No. 4: January 1964

Page	Article
211	The Rationalization of Transport
226	Social Benefits and Costs of Railway Services
240	Principles of the Automatic Railway
255	Financial Management Applications of Computers
263	The Demand for Passenger Travel and Railway Services
272	Value-of-Service Rate-Making in America
284	Continuous Progress Control
299	Recent Publications