

RAILWAY AND TRAVEL MONTHLY

(Transport and Travel Monthly from Volume 20 No. 120, April 1920)

Editor: G. A. Sekon

Listed below are the main contents of each monthly issue. They are word-searchable. From the page number of an article and the page number of the succeeding one, you can judge how many pages it comprised. You can learn whether an article is accompanied by illustrations (usually photographs, occasionally maps or drawings) and also the name of its author, where this was given.

Note 1: The first column in each table is colour coded to indicate the main theme of an article, as follows:-

Railway	Railways
Ships	Shipping
Air	Aviation
Road	Road Transport
-	No particular theme, or cross discipline

Note 2: The regular item called 'Apposite Aphorisms' corresponded to the Railway Magazine's 'Pertinent Paragraphs'!
